Railroad Magnate Henry M. Flagler, who recently secured a divorce from his insane wife under a special law passed by the Florida legislature, has married again. Last Saturday he was united to Miss Mary Lilla Kenan, of Kenansville, N. C., a young woman 36 years of age.

TWO GOOD MOTTOES.

"Anything that interests a dozen people."

"Nothing I would not be glad to have my daughter read."

For 30 years and more the Arlington, Mo., Advocate has been printed with unflinching regularity every week, the matter for each issue being prepared with the above mottoes clearly in mind.

A FOOLISH RULE.

A young woman who drew one of the prizes in the Oklahoma land lottery was married a day or two after the drawing and was notified that because of her marriage she would lose her right to the land. The Washington Post very properly contends the notion that the woman could be deprived of anything which she had fairly acquired because of her marriage.

A VENTURESOME EDITOR.

For the first time we were married Wednesday. We have contemplated this step for a long time, but lack of funds has always prevented, until we finally decided to get married and trust to Providence for the rest.

The subscription rates of the Record will remain at the same price. Only the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony. Our views on the money question will remain the same, only we need more of it.—Mussouri Kan. Record.

SUSAN MCGILL, H. F. Remley.

TAKES LAW IN HIS HANDS.

KILL A NEGRO AND THEN TRIES THE DEAD MAN'S WIFE FOR BREACH OF THE PEACE.

Shadland, Ky. Aug. 26.—Phil Franklin a negro was killed at Norwood, W. Va. by Magistrate Orizer. The magistrate was trying Franklin's wife for breach of the peace when he received news that Franklin was on his way to the court room and a shot rang, noting that he would have a change of lawyers.

gun and stepped out of the rear door to wait for the negro. Franklin arrived in a few moments and rested his gun across the window sill, commanded his wife to come out. Judge Orizer stepped around and taking deliberate aim, shot Franklin through the body. He then walked into court and said: "We will now proceed with the case." The negro will die.

LABOR'S LOGICAL MOVE.

Labor has evidently resolved to find out whether sauce for the goose is really sauce for the gander. Noting the success with which capital has met in its appeal to the judiciary against strikers, the Amalgamated Association of Steel Workers is going to try conclusions with the steel trust in the courts. It will institute quo warranto proceedings against the Attorney General of the United States in an endeavor to compel him to show cause why this trust is permitted to conduct its business in violation of the Sherman act. This is a logical move.

Judge Wing of Cincinnati recently forbade "picketing" or "intercepting men while going to or from the factory—anywhere, even miles away—by one man or more than one."

Judge Stone of Cleveland delivered a similar dictum in issuing an injunction.

Vice Chancellor Pitney of New Jersey declares it unlawful for strikers (girls) to assemble anywhere to discuss their situation and devise means of bettering it.

Judge Gager of Connecticut went further and issued an injunction forbidding all these things and issued attachments against the homes of the strikers. Had created out of their earnings and the bank accounts they had set aside against sickness, loss of work or misfortune.

TONS OF CAT'S TAILS.

A hundred tons of cats' tails were recently sold in one lot in London for ornamenting ladies' wearing apparel. Assuming that an average cat's tail would weigh a couple of ounces this would mean that no fewer than 1,700,000 cats had been killed just to supply this one consumption.

MEXICAN WAR VETERANS MEETING.

The next meeting of the National Association of Mexican War Veterans will be held at Cleveland, O. Sept. 12, 13, 14. Headquarters at the Lincoln Hotel. Place of meeting, City Council Chamber. This is expected to be one of the grandest meetings and, perhaps the last one for the old veterans. Railroad fare is one cent a mile. For program, etc., address Hon. E. W. Deussen, Cleveland, O.

BILL NYE INDORESSES LIFE INSURANCE.

The following indorsement of life insurance is from the pen of Bill Nye and is characteristic of him says an exchange:

"In these days of dynamite and swift changing presidential administrations and dark tunnels through which an engineer goes groping his way at 25 miles per hour, these days of tumbling signs of the times and tippy telegraph poles live wires and dead repairs, these days when the politician and the deadly bridge policeman with his pal lie down together under the influence of the same stimulant; these days when death lurks in the air we breathe, the earth we tread, the food we eat, the water—the water we bathe in—I say it behooves us to look well to our insurance and our future state, and I take pleasure in certifying and saying to whom these presents may come that since I became fully insured my health has improved and I am sure that it is a subject for profound congratulation on my own part and the deepest disgust on the part of those who would naturally inherit my vast wealth."

EASILY EARNED.

An election petition was being tried, and a witness was called to prove bribery.

"One of the gentlemen says to me, 'Hodge, you must vote for the Tories,'" said the witness.

"And what did you answer to that," asked the counsel.

"Well, says I, 'how much?'"

"And what did the agent say?"

"He didn't say nothing." The other gentleman comes to me and says, 'You must vote for the Liberals, Hodge.'"

"And what did you answer?"

"I said, 'how much?' so he said me what the other gentleman offered and I told him 5 shillings."

"And what did the Liberal agent do?"

"He gave me 10."

"Counsel sits down triumphantly and up starts the other side."

"Did you vote for the Liberals?"

"Did you vote for the Tories?"

"No, I ain't got a vote."—London Spare Moments.

THEY ARE OIL RIGHT.

William Jennings Bryan has purchased what is believed to be valuable oil land in Wyoming. Thus Mr. Bryan is following the example of ex-Senator Pettigrew, ex-Senator Towne, ex-Gov. Hogg, ex-Senator Mills and Gov. McMullin, all of whom we are glad to say have made lucky investments. We trust Mr. Bryan will strike a gusher, several of them and accumulate many ducaats.

ONE WIDOW'S TRIUMPH

(Chicago Item) O'Connell.

Some Kentucky widows know how to manage things and some do not. One would suppose that a widow who had force enough to secure an appointment as postmistress would have force enough to hold the place against all comers. However a widow of Newmarket, Ky., permitted herself to be superseded by a man.

The widow Tringle, who was postmistress at another point in Kentucky, hearing of the Newmarket widow's misfortune, registered a vow that no man would ever get the job of her. Then was Mr. Kennedy in the town, however, who was on intimate terms with the Congressman from that district. Representative Downing, and he used his intimacy to such advantage that he was "mentioned" as the probable successor of Mrs. Tringle. Mrs. Tringle recognized the danger and lay in wait for Kennedy.

He called at the postoffice every day, ostensibly to get his mail, but with the real purpose of looking over the ground. Whenever he called Mrs. Tringle made it a point to wait on him. She was a good looking woman and her face appeared in the delivery window as a picture. She fell into the way of smiling sweetly at Mr. Kennedy when she handed him a letter. When there was no letter for him she threw so much soulful regard into her eyes that Mr. Kennedy was glad no letter had come.

He fell into the habit of calling twice a day and at times when he must have known it was impossible for him to get any mail.

Mrs. Tringle knew it was impossible and that he came to see her. In a little while he knew she knew he knew it was impossible.

Then Mr. Kennedy proposed marriage to Mrs. Tringle and Mrs. Tringle was willing they were wed. The next day Mr. Kennedy was appointed postmaster.

"I said no man would ever get the better of me," then remarked Mrs. Kennedy, who was Mrs. Tringle, "and you see I was right."

And so she was.

Mrs. Swayne received many of her friends Tuesday evening from 4 to 6 to meet her sister, Mrs. Ben Herring. It was a party playing cards, dancing, and the evening was Japanese gifts, also the decorations. Each of us left pleased with Mrs. Herring. Refreshing and hearty refreshments were served.

The Man

HAS SEEN THE LARGEST AND BEST COLLECTION OF NEW AND UP-TO-DATE STYLES SHOWN ANYWHERE IN AMERICA.

THE man who orders an "International" suit will have it made to his individual measure by the best tailoring concern in the world—and it will cost considerably less than he would have to pay for equally good clothes at any other tailor's. These are facts that we know to be exactly as stated, and this is the reason we take orders for and recommend

"INTERNATIONAL" GARMENTS.

We are confident if you will have one "International" Suit made, you will always wear "International" clothes thereafter.

H. C. AMBERG.

RUNNING A NEWSPAPER.

Running a newspaper is like running a hotel, with a difference that when a person goes into a hotel for a meal and finds something on the table that does not suit him, he does not get up and enter a war whoop, kick over the chairs, raise his hands with the landlord and tell him to stop his old hotel; it's no good. He simply sets the dish that doesn't suit him aside and wades into some of the many dishes he does like.

It is quite different with some newspaper readers. They find an article occasionally that does not suit them, and without stopping to think of the hundreds it does suit, rush off to the newspaper office with a grand display of their inferiority and animosity by stopping their paper.

We hope to see the time when people will throw off narrow, partisan views and take a broader, grander view and more liberal view of the affairs of life.

WEIRD MENTAL POWER.

Viggo Lerche, a Dane, 23 years old, who recently arrived here from Copenhagen to visit his uncle, C. Jensen, is astounding the people of Alto Pass, Ill., by his wonderful power over inanimate matter.

He will take a wood or metal object several feet long, lean it against a wall at an angle of 45 degrees, focus his eyes on it and within a few seconds the object will raise slowly to a perpendicular position and stand for a minute or so, then move toward him or fall back, just as his will dictates. It is positively known that there is no trickery whatever in his performance. He discovered his power accidentally several years ago while a student at Copenhagen college.

Lerche has an interesting personality. He has seen much of the world and talks and sings in several different languages. He is a literal walking magnet and could enrich himself by exhibiting his powers, but he shuns notoriety, and can seldom be induced to practice his strange gifts.

PUBLIC SALE.

Having purchased property in Lawton, O. T., have decided to move and locate there permanently, and I will offer for sale at my farm at Woodland Mills, on Thursday, September 18th, 1893, 20 Acres of good corn in the field, 35 tons of Timothy Hay in stack, Horses, Mules, Cattle, Farming Machinery, Buggies, Household and Kitchen Furniture, etc.

FOR RENT.

I will also offer for rent 125 acres of good land for two years. Terms made known on day of sale. Also new 8 ton wagon and stock scales, located in my stock pens and I will lease my stock pens until Dec. 31, 1893.

J. W. MARTIN, Jr.

TO ALL PERSONS HAVING FARMING, TIMBERED OR MINERAL LANDS, ETC., FOR SALE.

The Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway proposes to use its best force to induce a good class of immigrants to settle in territory contiguous to its lines, and to engage the attention of capitalists seeking Manufacturing Sites or Mining Property. It therefore solicits the support, the co-operation and the assistance of the people of every county through which its lines pass. The management earnestly requests that all persons who have farms for sale, or lease, those who have timbered lands, water power or mineral lands for sale, will send a brief description of same to the railroad agent nearest them giving the prices and terms of sale. The prices must correspond with the prices asked of local buyers. The management does not propose to buy or sell land to immigrants as a means of speculation.

Large tracts suitable for colonization, at low prices, are especially wanted.

HE PAID THE PENALTY.

Henry Niles, of Winchester, Tenn.,
Burned at the Stake.

Niles emphatically stated that there was no intention in the deed but that the mob was orderly.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 25.—Henry Niles, the Negro who criminally assaulted and shot to death Mrs. Charles Williams, wife of a prominent farmer near Winchester, Tenn., last Friday, was captured early Sunday morning at water tank, near Covert, Tenn. He was taken to Winchester by his captors and placed in the county jail. Sheriff Stewart made haste to barricade the jail and protect the prisoner. Soon after a mob of several hundred men gathered, but Assistant Attorney General Matt N. Whitaker appeared and made a speech to the crowd. He appealed to them to assist him in abating excitement and upholding the majesty of the law. This appeal was supplemented by J. J. Lynch, Capt. W. P. Tolley, Jesse M. Littleton, Foster Kimmey and others.

No sooner had the appeal been made than several hundred citizens from the neighborhood where the crime was committed came in and augmented the mob. They swept forward upon the jail, overpowered the sheriff and his deputies took the prisoner and started for the scene of the crime, 12 miles distant, at 10:15 a. m.

The mob was orderly but determined. It seemed that the whole population for miles around had turned out to see the fate of the wretch. A procession three miles in length followed the mob to the Williams home. Arriving at a point in sight of the scene of the crime, the Negro was placed on a stump and given a chance to make a statement.

He mounted the stump stolidly, and laughed as he began his statement. He said: "Tell all my sisters and brothers to meet me in glory. I am going to make that my home. Tell my mother to meet me where parting will be no more."

He was then asked as to whether any one else was implicated in the crime. Niles stated emphatically there was no one implicated but himself.

"Why did you kill Mrs. Williams," was asked.

"I just done that because I had nothing else to do."

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 26.—A small grocery store and dwelling at Thompson Springs, eight miles from Birmingham, occupied by Miles Brooks, a Negro, was burned by a mob Sunday morning. Brooks is alleged to have written an inflammatory letter to Mrs. Cuttiff, a white woman, who had occasionally patronized his store. Daniel Cuttiff, the woman's husband, searched for the Negro for two days. The store and dwelling were both closed during that time, and Sunday a crowd of men who had joined in the search burned the dwelling and store. Twenty shots were fired into the building, but the Negro had left the house and no one was hurt.

THE GRAND PARADE

It is Estimated That About 40,000
Sir Knights Templar Were in Line at Louisville.

MAJ. J. L. LEATHERS GRAND MARSHAL.

Knights From Nearly Every State and Cranny of the Country, Including Honolulu, Present.

The Course of the Grand Was a
Flattering Show of Hostility.
Flags and Streamers—The Next Meeting Place.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 27.—The 24th triennial convulse of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar began here Tuesday and the official prediction of fair weather for the big parade, made public during a driving rain Monday, was received with general relief.

It is estimated that 40,000 Sir Knights were in line when the big parade moved at 9:20 p. m. Tuesday, headed by Maj. John L. Leathers, the grand marshal.

This pageant extended over a route of four miles, and was the crowning glory of the convulse. Knights Templar from nearly every state and cranny of the country, including even Honolulu, were in line.

The course of the parade was a fluttering show of hostile flags and streamers, and nearly every one of their presented to the marchers some sign of welcome.

The Streets Very Clear.

Extensive precautions to keep the streets clear were adopted. Each side of every street was fenced with wire to keep the crowds on the sidewalks. Street cars did not run and vehicles with spectators were compelled to remain on the side streets.

TRIENNIAL CONCLAVE

K. T., LOUISVILLE, KY.

Quadruple Electric Arch at Intersection of Fourth Avenue and Broadway.

No leaves or straws were allowed to show against the walls of buildings in order that all might have an equal opportunity to view the spectacle.

Incoming trains Monday evening the tracks about the city throughout the day and by midnight all but a few scattered commanderies had arrived and been accepted to the quarters. From ten to 20 trains arrived every hour throughout the city, and it is estimated that there are about 40,000 visitors here.

The Election of Officers.

Col. George M. Haverly, of Chicago, who was elected to the office of grand commander, stated that the election of officers of the grand encampment Wednesday would undoubtedly be the most perfunctory affair it has been for past years.

Grand Master Lloyd will retire and be succeeded by Deputy Grand Master Stoddard, of Texas. Officers under him will each advance one grade. This will leave one vacancy to be contested for, the junior grand warlordship. A hot skirmish is expected, the junior grand warlord being in line to become the highest officer some day.

In connection with this office nearly every grand commander at the convulse is regarded as a candidate, and a great deal of quiet scheming was done Monday and Tuesday.

The Next Convulse.

The place of the next meeting place for the convulse will be one of the hot things to come before the grand encampment. St. Paul is a strong candidate, Milwaukee is making a strong bid, and San Francisco is also represented by an earnest band of vigorous advocates. Denver and Cincinnati are in line, while St. Louis and various cities of New England are regarded as possibilities.

The city was a startling glow of lights Monday night when the festivities of the week were inaugurated at the custom house with a reception to grand commanders, officers and ladies. Grand Commander Jefferson, of Kentucky, made a brief speech of welcome to which Grand Master Lloyd responded happily.

SHAFFER DENIES IT

He Has No Official Knowledge of Peace Negotiations for a Settlement of the Strike.

STILL THE REPORT WILL NOT DOWN.

The Civic Federation May Secure the Good Offices of Archbishop Ireland,
Bishop Potter and Others.

The Steel Corporation Officials Claim to Have Made Gains All Along the Line, But the Strikers Deny This.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 27.—Reported peace negotiations for the settlement of the strike through the mediation of Archbishop Ireland, the officials of the National Civic Federation, received a jolt when President Theodore J. Shaffer, of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, Monday night declared absolutely that he had no official knowledge of such proceedings and that if such a move had been started it did not have the official sanction of the association.

Nevertheless, the subject will not down, and Monday night it is said the executive committee of the Civic Federation, already prominent in the matter, is fully prepared to carry on negotiations and, if necessary, endeavor to secure the good offices of Archbishop Ireland, Bishop Potter, Daniel Hanna and Seth Low, co-members of their organization, to give such prominence to the committee that the proposition will be received by the steel corporation.

Both Sides in Limb Victories.

In the meantime both sides to the case have had their share of victory. The steel people point to the gains they have made all along the line in the way of securing union and starting plants, while the unskilled officials say that instead of losing ground the association is gaining every day and that while the same time has succeeded in starting a new plant they are not turning out incalculable material and are losing money and breaking valuable men, officers, and in the end will have to ask their old men to come to the rescue.
